

Mewar University enters into academic collaboration with Pyeongtaek University of Korea

Chittorgarh: In order to expand its international horizon, Mewar University (MU) has entered into an MoU with Pyeongtaek University (PTU), which provides quality higher education through twenty-five undergraduate programs, and five graduate schools, including a seminary graduate school and four professional graduate schools (Social Work, Information, Education and Counseling).

Pursuing the vision of "Educational Excellence in the Spirit of Christianity", Pyeongtaek University offers ideal education in cooperation with the local business industries and communities. PTU's goal is to emerge as one of the most prestigious universities in Korea.

MU will start the following programs in collaboration with PTU (website: <http://english.ptu.ac.kr/>):

1. Faculty, staff and students exchange programs
2. Joint research activities and publications
3. Special short-term academic programs
