

MEWAR UNIVERSITY,

IMPACT OF EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

Mewar University is designed to educate and train the students according to the subject choice, by following the best standards available in this sphere. The University is oriented to develop the personality to suit the desired job profile through sustained exposure to extra-curricular activities. Mewar University believes in social values and responsibilities to all members who are part of this institute by transmitting extension activities in the neighborhood for comprehensive progress of the society. The university is committed to carving out a generation who would take part in active participation in social activities. Every year, to sensitize students on social activities, the university adopts a particular village and supplies its social services to the community under the “Village Adoption Program”. Frequent visits of students and teachers are arranged in nearby villages to understand the particular difficulties they are facing and find solutions for them.

Apart from the general visits and participation of students and teachers in such activities National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC) also actively serve society through special programs and camps. In addition, various outreach programs and invited lectures are also benefited the community. Students and staff members are always ready to donate blood in case of an emergency. Students conduct cleanliness, health, and hygiene awareness programmes in and around nearby villages, hospitals, bus stands, and railway stations.

Free Medical, Dental, and Eye Camps are conducted every year for the villagers in collaboration with trusts/others.

Impact:

The ultimate aim of extension and outreach programmes, apart from study-based curriculum, we prepare the students to mold social values and widespread their responsibilities and knowledge of societal issues and problems by making them involved with the community people. To achieve such goals comprehensively we propose the activities with various trusts and companies and also join hands with local community organizations and serve the community. Students with profound interest attain social values and responsibility.

The university is fulfilling its social responsibilities and contributing to community development and nation-building, further committed to developing in each student the spirit of nationalism, socialism, and the pride of being an Indian
