16.Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

Mewar University has been offing various interdisciplinary courses/programmes to the students of the university. The implementation of NEP-2020 has paved the way for institutions to transform themselves into holistic multidisciplinary institutions. The university has approached the integration of humanities and science. The students from science, engineering and technology are offered various value-added courses in a humanities discipline and students from humanities backgrounds can opt for technical value-added courses.

Mewar university has been offering flexible and innovative curricula that include credit-based courses and projects in the areas of community engagement and service, environmental education, and value-based education towards the attainment of holistic and multidisciplinary education. Students from the Department of Agriculture have to complete Rural Agricultural Work Experience (RAWE) training that enables the students to gain rural experience, gives them confidence and enhances on-farm problem-solving abilities in real-life situations, in coordination with producers and consumers.

With the implementation of NEP-2020, Mewar University plans to offer programmes that enable multiple entries and exits at the end of the first, second and third years of undergraduate programmes. The university has plans to engage the faculty members and research scholars in research work that are beneficial to society e.g. A team of students and faculty members are working on the development of Bioplastic from fruit extracts.

17.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

The candidates who have appeared at the End Term Semester / Annual Examinations shall be issued the Grade Sheets / Statement of Marks through the Office of Controller of Examinations, necessarily mentioning the grade/marks or both in individual courses/subjects along with the award of SGPA (Semester Grade Point Average) and CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) / total obtained out of maximum marks; by the permission to issue such results by the Hon'ble Chairperson / Chancellor. The Marks and grade sheet for the final semester for successful candidates leading to award of degrees shall display all the previous individual semester/years performances (SGPA / Total obtained marks) along with the current and cumulative shall be issued through the Controller of Examination under intimation to the Registrar of the University.

All those who have successfully completed the programmes by passing all the courses, earning the requisite total Credits, the required minimum grades / minimum percentage, the project /training internship, and all requirements as per the ordinance and scheme of the respective programme shall be eligible for the award of degree in the subsequent University Convocation. The Degree shall be issued under the name and sign of the Hon'ble Chairperson (Chancellor) and by the President (Vice Chancellor) of the University under his sign and seal. They may be issued the provisional degree certificate which may be valid till the subsequent University convocation.

18.Skill development:

Mewar university has been working to strengthen the vocational education and soft skills of students. The university has also applied for approval of NCVET under the dual category which means that the university will be approved as awarding body as well as an assessment agency. Also, the university has undertaken many government projects in the field of vocational education and trained thousands of students in this field. Also, the university regularly conducts soft skills training sessions. Further, the university plans to implement NSQF-aligned vocational courses such as B.Voc in many streams.

To promote vocational education, the university has conducted various programs in collaboration with various state skill development centres such as Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Odisha etc. The university has adopted Universal human values as one of the subjects as mandated by AICTE which includes the development of humanistic, ethical, Constitutional, and universal human values of truth (Satya), righteous conduct (dharma), peace (Shanti), love (prem), nonviolence (ahimsa), scientific temper, citizenship values, and also life-skills etc. Furthermore, regular mentorship is provided to all the students on these topics by qualified teachers.

Vocational courses are a core part of the curriculum of the university. For example, an agriculture student will do a vocational course on food processing, similarly, a mechanical engineering graduate has to do a course on 3D printing to add the required skills.

University regularly involves various industry veterans to train our students in a specific field.

At current we are offering it on campus. Further, the university will offer it in online mode, as we get the approval for Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode. The university is planning to offer various courses on AI, Block Chain, Cloud Computing, Quantum Computing, Data Analytics, Big Data, Machine Learning, and electric vehicles in future. As per NEP-2020, the university has prepared itself to offer skill development courses along with regular courses through certificates, minor degrees etc.

19. Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Mewar University is offering undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Indian Languages in various programmes e.g. D.El.Ed, B.Ed. etc. UG programme in Agriculture, Horticulture, Forestry etc includes different subjects like the Agricultural Heritage of India, Medicinal and Aromatic Plants, Ethnobotany etc that are being taught in dual language.

All the faculty are motivated to teach in bilingual mode (English and vernacular). University is organizing classes for foreign students to teach them the Hindi language and behavioural classes are organised to make them understand the regional and Indian languages, culture and traditional values.

Mewar University offers professional programmes, in both Hindi and English especially in the first year so as to get them acclimatized.

Mewar University is conducting courses related to Indian Culture in Dance (Odissi), Vocal Music (Hindustani), Instrumental Music (Flute, Sitar, Tabla etc) etc. Courses on Indian traditions like Yoga, painting, astrology, Vastu etc are also being offered at various levels.

The University admits students from different countries like Nigeria, Nepal, Uganda, etc and from almost all the states/union territories of India through special schemes of Ishan Uday scheme (for students of North Eastern States). The students from Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh are being admitted under the scheme of the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES) as part of Sadbhavana. Mewar University is sponsoring 50 percent of fees for these students.

20.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Mewar University has always been proactive to transform its curriculum towards Outcome-based Education (OBE). Since 2015, there have been major changes in the field of higher education. The major shift is related from teacher-centricity to learner-centricity which means the focus is on what the learner should learn and to what extent he has learnt and learning is measured in terms of to what extent a specified outcome has been attained by the student. Keeping this in mind, Mewar University has implemented Outcome-based Education (OBE) in its various programmes. Programme outcomes, Programme Specific Outcomes and Course Outcomes are defined and by using the Anderson-Bloom taxonomy table, these outcomes are measured as well.

In an effort to capture Outcome-based education in teaching and learning practices, Mewar University has made it mandatory for all courses to have course outcomes defined and at the time of instructions in classes and at the time of assessment the question paper is designed in such a way to cover all the course outcomes. The attainment is then calculated using AB Table and based on the attainment percentage of a particular CO, the quality loop is closed. Further, the COs are mapped to POs and PSOs as well.

Mewar University has taken many initiatives in order to promote OBE such as training its faculty members in OBE, and workshops on the implementation of OBE in view of NEP-2020. Also, regular seminars/workshops are conducted to familiarize the faculty members with various aspects of the National Education Policy 2020.

21.Distance education/online education:

Mewar University uses Information Communication Technology in teaching along with regular offline teaching. The teachers use various ICT tools like PowerPoint Presentations, Google Classroom, ICT-enabled Classroom, MS Teams, Cisco Webex, Gnomio, WordPress, smartboards, Google Forms, MS Forms, etc. The university has a well-structured infrastructure and is fully equipped with the IT facilities like computer systems, smart classrooms, a wi-fi campus, high-speed LAN, a recording studio, etc. The university has a license for Office365, and faculty members and students are registered users of the same which provides all the facilities associated with Office365. The faculty members of the University have been practising blended learning in the classes. Students are given assignments and quizzes online, presentations are taken offline as well as on online mode, and teachers record their lectures and share the link with the students.

The university motivates the faculty members and students to do courses online on NPTEL SWAYAM, Coursera etc. The credits earned by the students are added to the student's credits earned at university examinations.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which is reflected in Programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes(PSOs) and Course Outcomes(COs) of the Programmes offered by the University

The courses in all programmes of Mewar University are designed and implemented with relevance to the local, national, regional, and global developmental needs. The University has a well-structured Board of studies for each department with a Dean of faculty as chairman, HOD as convenor,internal faculty members, external members from academics, industries,and alumni as members for the design and development of the curriculum. The curriculum developed by faculty members, and recommended by BOS shall be placed before Academic Council for approval. Feedback from students, parents, employers, alumni, and faculty members is also taken for updating the curriculum on regular basis. University also included Short-Term training programmes as well as six-month Internships in the curriculum of most programmes. The University also included value-added courses for the overall academic development of students.

The programme outcomes for engineering courses are also aligned with NBA requirements and it confirms the global standards in engineering. Local and regional needs are addressed through programme-specific outcomes and course outcomes of respective courses in each programme. Furthermore, for each course, a set of course outcomes is defined which helps students in learning as it is an established fact that when a student knows the outcome of the course, his/ her learning levels improve.

The university has a policy to revise the curriculum once in two years and whenever it is required.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the studentsand organises special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Mewar University assesses the learning levels of the students at various stages of the programmes. The student is enrolled in, wherein at the beginning of a unit, topics are allotted to the students for, Chart/Model, Presentation, and Assignment preparation. Students are adjudged as slow or advanced learners on the basis of their performance in assignments, charts, presentations, and internal assessments. Afterward remedial classes, mock tests, etc., are arranged for slow learners. The teachers and counselors give personal attention to the slow learners. Student progress reports are kept and shared with their parents and guardians.

On the other side, the university also identifies, the advanced learner. The University arranges competitive classes i.e. GATE, CAT, UGC-NET, JET(Agriculture), and other competitive exams for advanced learners. The students are also encouraged to participate in various curricular activities. The University organizes various activities like quiz contests Management activities, etc. for the slow and advanced learners to motivate them and help them excel in all the fields. Advance learners are also engaged in research activities with faculty members of the concerned department.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

The university has been following students centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning, and problem-solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences. The Mewar University implements a two-way Teaching Methodology that helps students boost their confidence, and improve listening, writing, and public speaking skills. Since students vary in their ability to comprehend and absorb the subject knowledge uniformly, the teaching methodology adopted by the university helps in achieving better learning outcomes. The teacher facilitates learning by allowing each student to comprehend at their personal level by ensuring their involvement in-class activities to absorb and grasp information at their own pace. Experimental learning is practiced in the form of Lab activities, short-term training, internship, and industrial and field visits. Students are given problems in the assignments, and case studies in which they have to utilize their analytical skills to solve them. Various problem-solving methodologies such as group discussion, listing possible solutions to a problem at hand, and brainstorming is being implemented in all programmes offered by the university. TheProgram Outcomes, Program Specific Outcomes, and Course Outcomes have been predefined in all the programs. This provides a comprehensive understanding to the students right from the beginning of the session as to what should be the primary focus. It helps them self-evaluate their performance at the completion of the programme.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning processes during the year

The University teacher has been using ICT tools for teaching for the past several years and it has become a regular practice. The university has a license for office365, and faculty members and students are registered users of the same, providing all the facilities associated with office365. Students are given online assignments and quizzes, presentations taken offline and online, and teachers record their lectures and share the link with students.

The IQAC of the University conducted Faculty Training Programme for developing e-content and using e-resources during the year. Moreover, the Information Technology department of Mewar University too provided several refresher courses and faculty development Programmes for the teachers as well as students. The teachers are effectively using ICT-enabled tools like laptops, headphones, PPT presentations, virtual labs, YouTube links, e-contents, and mobile applications (MS-Team, Google meet, Zoom and Google classroom, etc.), Delnet, Shodhganga, SWAYAM, and NDL,etc.

University has provided other resources for faculty members as well as students i.e. LCD Projector, Wi-Fi connection, LAN connection, Audio system, Learning Management System.

During COVID-19, online classes were conducted for the students who could not come to classes offline following the COVID-19 guidelines. Online examinations were also conducted for the final year students. The university motivates the faculty members and students to do courses online on NPTEL SWAYAM and the credits earned are added to the student's credits earned at university examinations.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - The institution has stated learning outcomes (generic and programme specific)/graduate attributes which are integrated into the assessment process and widely publicized through the website and other documents

Mewar University has stated learning outcomes and graduate attributes that are integrated into the assessment process in its syllabi that is clearly publicized through its website and other documents. Each department that offers any programme of study is displayed on our university website. The syllabus of each programme provides clear information about core courses, generic elective courses, fundamental courses, discipline-specific courses and also the learning outcomes of different programmes. The syllabus also provides information about the scheme of instruction and evaluation. Mewar University has devised and revised all its educational programmes to include graduate attributes so that when a student gets his degree, he is equipped with discipline, knowledge, critical thinking, problem-solving ability, communication skills and digital capability. Each programme provides the students to opt for generic courses, which are offered to expand their knowledge of the students and initiate them into interdisciplinary fields.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes, Programme specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution during the year

Program outcomes, program-specific outcomes, and course outcomes for all programs offered by the Institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students Response: Program Outcomes (POs), Program Specific Outcomes (PSO/s), and Course Outcomes (COs) were framed after the adoption of CBCS scheme (2017) of University in consultation with all of its stakeholders - students, faculty, alumni and industries. These attributes are the soul of the Outcome-Based Education (OBE) system, adopted by almost all premier institutions of higher learning as a practice. In MU, as well, programs have been designed in a way that the Program Educational Objectives (PEOs) are met at the completion of the program. The intent behind the induction of POs, PSOs, and COs in the course delivery system is to prepare the students to meet the expectation of society and industry at large. The learning outcomes are clearly defined using Bloom's taxonomy for all academic programs and courses of the University. They are instrumental in achieving the mission and objectives of the University. While defining the learning outcomes, the following are taken care of: Learning outcomes are measurable and stated using active verbs (Bloom's taxonomy).

3.5 - Consultancy

3.5.1 - Institution has a policy on consultancy including revenue sharing between the institution and the individual and encourages its faculty to undertake consultancy

CONSULTANCY-POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Consultancy is essentially a knowledge-based profession and consultants play an important role in technological, industrial and economic developments and are effective agents of change in society. Keeping in view the importance of higher education in transforming the economic fortunes of a country by emphasizing innovations, Mewar University has taken several measures for promoting innovative research by encouraging inter-disciplinary research through inter-university, intra-university, university-institute, and university-industry collaborations. It includes an assignment or job basically for providing expert advice, training, testing at laboratories, market research, and other related work.

The Mewar University encourages staff to undertake certain kinds of work, including a range of professional activities and some types of consultancy. It considers that these activities can enhance the standing and reputation of the University and also enables it to respond to the needs of the region in line with Government wishes. It also acknowledges the value of knowledge exchange in the support of staff development.

The faculty members of the university involved in the consultancy are referred to as consultants and any other outside agency seeking consultancy is referred to as a beneficiary.

The University promotes active collaboration with the government, trade, and industry. Students are required to undertake industry-oriented projects.

The University is committed to developing a chain of multi-functional and multi-sectoral programs for the corporate world, Government departments, and NGOs

3.6 - Extension Activities

3.6.1 - Extension activities in the neighbourhood community in terms of impact and sensitising students to social issues and holistic development during the year

would take part active participation in social activities Every year, to sensitize students on social activities, the university adopts a particular village and supply their social services to the community under the "Village Adoption Program". Frequent visits of students and teachers are arranged in nearby villages to understand the particular difficulties they are facing and find the solutions for that. Apart from the general visits and participation of students and teachers in such activities National Service Scheme and National Cadet Corp also actively serve the society through One-day and Special Camp. In addition, various outreach programs and invited lectures have also benefited the community.

Impact:

The ultimate aim through extension and outreach programs, apart from study based curriculum, we prepare the students to mold social values, widespread their responsibilities and knowledge in societal issues and problems by making them involved with the community people. To achieve such goals in a comprehensive manner we tied up with NGOs and nearby located industriesand join hands with local community organizations and serve the community. Students with profound interest attain social values and responsibility.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The institution has a clearly stated vision and mission which are reflected in its academic and administrative governance

`Vision`

`To develop a center of excellence for technical, professional, and vocational education and research at par with national and international standards.`

`Mission`

`To develop a framework for effectively conducting various educational and research programmes of the highest standards so as to produce confident, self-reliant, and responsible youth for society and outstanding professionals for government, industry, and business. The mission is to "Reach the unreached"`

- `We make an effort to provide easy access to quality education in all academic & professional fields to its students, irrespective of their caste, creed, age, gender, region, or country, at an affordable cost.`
- `Associations are built with National Institutes and universities to broaden the exposure for students' future prospects through career counseling and placement support.`
- `We put forward a flexible choice-based credit system of education and dual-degree programmes.`
- `We plan to excel and upgrade the Medical field with new Nursing & Medical College and a well-equipped pharmaceutical facility by 2035.`
- `As a step toward saving the environment, we are in the process to make the University paperless.`

`Our 5-D moral system mantra for youth, which also aids in the functioning of institutions isDedication, Devotion, Discipline, Determination, and Development.`

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The Institute practices decentralization of powers and participative management under the chairmanship of the chancellor.

Decentralization is seen as a means of improving the efficiency of the education system and the quality of educational service. at various levels of the University, it grooms the leadership. The governing body, Chancellor, Vice-chancellor, Management, Director Academic, teaching-non-teaching staff, Student representatives, Alumni, and various committees are jointly empowered to propose, design, formulate and execute their plans within the framework of governance. The Academic, Administrative, NCC, NSS, and IQAC all work together for the university's smooth running and overall functioning.

Decentralization is carried out as follows :

The powers are divested through the Rajasthan Govt. Act No. 4 of 2009 was passed by the Rajasthan Legislative Assembly to University for complete transparency in the administration and decision-making process. The powers aredelegated to the Vice-Chancellor for Academic, institutional development, curricular and extra-curricular activities. The Deans, and HODs with Faculty memberswill have periodic meetings with Vice Chancellor and Director academic to discuss academic and administrative issues and to take appropriate measures and decisions

The Dean and HODs are empowered with appropriate powers. IQAC, Research, and Examination cell of the university working dedicatedly and jointly are excellent examples of decentralized and participative management.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic plan is effectively deployed

The University's strategic plan is designed to fulfill our goal of "Reaching the Unreached", We are committed to serving the interest and ambition of the youth, including those belonging to weaker sections, aspiring to acquire higher education and knowledge besides gaining the wisdom to contribute and excel in the new world of tomorrow. Including the poorest, deprived and economically backward people, especially by reaching the last person in the line of SC/ST can get excellence through techno-based education rather than the traditional way. It is also a fact that students from 23 states like Jammu, Kashmir, Bihar, Assam, Meghalaya, and other countries are studying at this University, the majority of which belong to SC/ST, backward class, and minority communities. Most of the girls studying are from rural environments. For effective deployment of our strategy we develop & revise our curriculum every 5 years, adding new subjects each year with the help of the academic Council, BoS, and BoE, CBCS has been adopted in almost all the curricula. Due to the pandemic [COVID-19], LMS (Learning Management System) such as Microsoft Team App, is widely used for a profound teaching experience. The fee for various courses at Mewar University is the lowest possible to prevent financial stress/burden on students and their guardians. In addition to that, the University provides many different scholarships to the weaker section, needy persons, and talented students.

6.4.4 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly

Mewar University has established a mechanism for conducting internal and external audits on financial transactions every year to ensure financial compliance. An internal audit is conducted half yearly by the internal financial committee of the institution. The committee thoroughly verifies the income and expenditure details and the compliance report of the internal audit is submitted to the management. An external audit is conducted once every year by an external agency.

All vouchers are audited by an internal financial committee on a half-yearly basis. The expenses incurred under different heads are thoroughly checked by verifying the bills and vouchers. If any discrepancy is found, the same is brought to the notice of the management.

The accounts of Mewar University are audited by Sethiya and Company chartered accountants regularly as per the government rules. Mewar University did not come across any major audit objection during the preceding years. All these mechanisms exhibit the transparency being maintained in financial matters and adherence to financial discipline to avoid defalcation of funds or properties of the institution at all levels. The audited statement is duly signed by the authorities of the management and chartered accountant.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Mewar University has a well-built ethical work culture that is based on inclusivity. The institute understands gender equality is one of the key challenges facing society today. To achieve societal goals, University makes sure that the workforce has equal participation among staff. The University has taken all the possible steps to balance gender neutrality in senior academic and executive ranks as well. Equal opportunities are ensured for all individuals irrespective of gender, race, caste, color, creed, language, religion, political or other opinions, national or social origin, property, birth, or another status. Its distinctive work culture, vigorous background, and ethos have led to the improvisation of women students and women staff on the campus. Safety, security, and well-being, along with gender equity and a pleasant working atmosphere are the issues of prime concern to Mewar University. To promote the inclusiveness message among the students and staff, Annual Gender Sensitization Action Plan is prepared at the beginning of the academic year itself. Gender issues have been sensitized on campus through various activities like debates, discussions, seminars, theatrical performances, and other forms of arts. The documentation also shows the institute has given prominent room for women to indulge in different academic and non-academic activities. Mewar takes a pledge to work towards providing a platform for those who are out of the mainstream.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Mewar University believes in RRR methodology i.e. Reduce, Reuse and Recycle to manage any degradable and non-degradable waste. The University has taken several steps to collect such wastes by placing different dustbins to segregate the different wastes like solid, biomedical, etc. There are committees formed that look into the minimization of waste regularly. In addition, different bins have been placed in different departments for solid waste management. After collecting these solid wastes from bins, the university ensures the recycling of all these pieces is done with minimum cost and labor. For biomedical waste, we have a separate dust bin to segregate plastic disposals, liquid wastes, and other things since the university has a primary health center. University takes all the precautionary mechanisms to collect such wastes by providing headgears, eye covers, and aprons. Gloves and boots to every employer who are actively indulged in the waste management system. Apart from managing the waste, the university has a focus on making awareness programs among youth on proper usage of waste. Hence, the university has organized many workshops on the implementation of a clean environment. It was stressed to avoid plastic items to the best possible capacity inside the campus.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities (within a maximum of 200 words)

Mewar University strongly believes in equality of all cultures and traditions and has always been at the forefront of sensitizing

students to the regional, cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic diversities of the state and nation. The equality of diversity is evident from the fact that students belonging to various regions, religions, castes, and creeds are studying here without any discrimination. Despite having a huge amount of students from outside India, we bring them all under one umbrella of equality. University celebrates national festivals, birth anniversaries, and memorials of great personalities with great fervor by including students from across the world. Similarly, University also creates a platform to celebrate their own festivals with enthusiasm and joy which helps them to instill social and religious harmony. Annual fest days are the epitome of such gatherings where students and staff from different pledge to keep the nation's integrity no matter what.

Apart from all these activities, University organizes special events to celebrate the cultural diversity of the nation and the world. The various departments also conduct workshops, seminars, and other outreach programs to promote communal harmony and tolerance. To stabilize the linguistic diversity, the university regularly conducts various competitions such as essay writing, elocution, and folk songs in different languages.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens:

Mewar University runs several initiatives to promote the citizens' numerous constitutional rights, obligations, and duties. Mewar University thinks that social services can promote national integrity. Every year, Mewar University hosts a blood donation camp to ensure that valuable lives are saved, many teachers and students donate blood. To recognize the accomplishments of women throughout history, Mewar University also observes Women's Day. In a similar vein, the Mewar University commemorates World Environment Day on June 5 each year to ensure that environmental concerns are addressed through the Swachh Bharat Cleanliness Drive initiative. The initiative aims to emphasize the value of cleanliness. Therefore, Mewar University makes sure that the principles, rights, duties, and obligations of citizens are upheld and serviced in this way. The Mewar University also observes World Social Justice Day on Feb 20, where the message of social equality and justice is shared with the common. MU's belief in "Knowledge to Wisdom" is sufficient to combat societal injustice. Other activities like Legal Aid Camp are also organized to discuss the importance of education, child marriage, good touch, bad touch, and constitutional provisions with the students. Education is the backbone of society which will bring prosperity to everyone's family.

7.1.10 - The Institution has a prescribed code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators and other staff and conducts periodic programmes in this regard. 2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

The university has been following students centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning, and problem-solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences. The Mewar University implements a two-way Teaching Methodology that helps students boost their confidence, and improve listening, writing, and public speaking skills. Since students vary in their ability to comprehend and absorb the subject knowledge uniformly, the teaching methodology adopted by the university helps in achieving better learning outcomes. The teacher facilitates learning by allowing each student to comprehend at their personal level by ensuring their involvement in-class activities to absorb and grasp information at their own pace. Experimental learning is practiced in the form of Lab activities, short-term training, internship, and industrial and field visits. Students are given problems in the assignments, and case studies in which they have to utilize their analytical skills to solve them. Various problem-solving methodologies such as group discussion, listing possible solutions to a problem at hand, and brainstorming is being implemented in all programmes offered by the university. TheProgram Outcomes, Program Specific Outcomes, and Course Outcomes have been predefined in all the programs. This provides a comprehensive understanding to the students right from the beginning of the session as to what should be the primary focus. It helps them self-evaluate their performance at the completion of the programme.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning processes during the year

The University teacher has been using ICT tools for teaching for the past several years and it has become a regular practice. The university has a license for office365, and faculty members and students are registered users of the same, providing all the facilities associated with office365. Students are given online assignments and quizzes, presentations taken offline and online, and teachers record their lectures and share the link with students.

The IQAC of the University conducted Faculty Training Programme for developing e-content and using e-resources during the year. Moreover, the Information Technology department of Mewar University too provided several refresher courses and faculty development Programmes for the teachers as well as students. The teachers are effectively using ICT-enabled tools like laptops, headphones, PPT presentations, virtual labs, YouTube links, e-contents, and mobile applications (MS-Team, Google meet, Zoom and Google classroom, etc.), Delnet, Shodhganga, SWAYAM, and NDL,etc.

University has provided other resources for faculty members as well as students i.e. LCD Projector, Wi-Fi connection, LAN connection, Audio system, Learning Management System.

During COVID-19, online classes were conducted for the students who could not come to classes offline following the COVID-19 guidelines. Online examinations were also conducted for the final year students. The university motivates the faculty members and students to do courses online on NPTEL SWAYAM and the credits earned are added to the student's credits earned at university examinations.

Each department that offers any programme of study is displayed on our university website. The syllabus of each programme provides clear information about core courses, generic elective courses, fundamental courses, discipline-specific courses and also the learning outcomes of different programmes. The syllabus also provides information about the scheme of instruction and evaluation. Mewar University has devised and revised all its educational programmes to include graduate attributes so that when a student gets his degree, he is equipped with discipline, knowledge, critical thinking, problem-solving ability, communication skills and digital capability. Each programme provides the students to opt for generic courses, which are offered to expand their knowledge of the students and initiate them into interdisciplinary fields.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes, Programme specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution during the year

Program outcomes, program-specific outcomes, and course outcomes for all programs offered by the Institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students Response: Program Outcomes (POs), Program Specific

Outcomes (PSO/s), and Course Outcomes (COs) were framed after the adoption of CBCS scheme (2017) of University in consultation with all of its stakeholders - students, faculty, alumni and industries. These attributes are the soul of the Outcome-Based Education (OBE) system, adopted by almost all premier institutions of higher learning as a practice. In MU, as well, programs have been designed in a way that the Program Educational Objectives (PEOs) are met at the completion of the program. The intent behind the induction of POs, PSOs, and COs in the course delivery system is to prepare the students to meet the expectation of society and industry at large. The learning outcomes are clearly defined using Bloom's taxonomy for all academic programs and courses of the University. They are instrumental in achieving the mission and objectives of the University. While defining the learning outcomes, the following are taken care of: Learning outcomes are measurable and stated using active verbs (Bloom's taxonomy).

3.5 - Consultancy

3.5.1 - Institution has a policy on consultancy including revenue sharing between the institution and the individual and encourages its faculty to undertake consultancy

CONSULTANCY-POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Consultancy is essentially a knowledge-based profession and consultants play an important role in technological, industrial and economic developments and are effective agents of change in society. Keeping in view the importance of higher education in transforming the economic fortunes of a country by emphasizing innovations, Mewar University has taken several measures for promoting innovative research by encouraging inter-disciplinary research through inter-university, intra-university, university-institute, and university-industry collaborations. It includes an assignment or job basically for providing expert advice, training, testing at laboratories, market research, and other related work.

The Mewar University encourages staff to undertake certain kinds of work, including a range of professional activities and some types of consultancy. It considers that these activities can enhance the standing and reputation of the University and also enables it to respond to the needs of the region in line with Government wishes. It also acknowledges the value of knowledge exchange in the support of staff development.

The faculty members of the university involved in the consultancy are referred to as consultants and any other outside agency seeking consultancy is referred to as a beneficiary.

The University promotes active collaboration with the government, trade, and industry. Students are required to undertake industry-oriented projects.

The University is committed to developing a chain of multi-functional and multi-sectoral programs for the corporate world, Government departments, and NGOs

3.6 - Extension Activities

3.6.1 - Extension activities in the neighbourhood community in terms of impact and sensitising students to social issues and holistic development during the year

Mewar University believes in social values and responsibilities to all members who are part of this institute by transmitting extension activities in the neighborhood for comprehensive progress of the society. The university is committed to carving out a generation who would take part active participation in social activities Every year, to sensitize students on social activities, the university adopts a particular village and supply their social services to the community under the "Village Adoption Program". Frequent visits of students and teachers are arranged in nearby villages to understand the particular difficulties they are facing and find the solutions for that. Apart from the general visits and participation of students and teachers in such activities National Service Scheme and National Cadet Corp also actively serve the society through One-day and Special Camp. In addition, various outreach programs and invited lectures have also benefited the community.

Impact:

The ultimate aim through extension and outreach programs, apart from study based curriculum, we prepare the students to mold social values, widespread their responsibilities and knowledge in societal issues and problems by making them involved with the community people. To achieve such goals in a comprehensive manner

we tied up with NGOs and nearby located industriesand join hands with local community organizations and serve the community.
Students with profound interest attain social values and responsibility.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The Institute practices decentralization of powers and participative management under the chairmanship of the chancellor.

Decentralization is seen as a means of improving the efficiency of the education system and the quality of educational service.

at various levels of the University, it grooms the leadership. The governing body, Chancellor, Vice-chancellor, Management, Director Academic, teaching-non-teaching staff, Student representatives, Alumni, and various committees are jointly empowered to propose, design, formulate and execute their plans within the framework of governance. The Academic, Administrative, NCC, NSS, and IQAC all work together for the university's smooth running and overall functioning.

Decentralization is carried out as follows :

The powers are divested through the Rajasthan Govt. Act No. 4 of 2009 was passed by the Rajasthan Legislative Assembly to University for complete transparency in the administration and decision-making process. The powers aredelegated to the Vice-Chancellor for Academic, institutional development, curricular and extra-curricular activities. The Deans, and HODs with Faculty memberswill have periodic meetings with Vice Chancellor and Director academic to discuss academic and administrative issues and to take appropriate measures and decisions

The Dean and HODs are empowered with appropriate powers. IQAC, Research, and Examination cell of the university working dedicatedly and jointly are excellent examples of decentralized and participative management.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic plan is effectively deployed

The University's strategic plan is designed to fulfill our goal of "Reaching the Unreached", We are committed to serving the interest and ambition of the youth, including those belonging to weaker sections, aspiring to acquire higher education and knowledge besides gaining the wisdom to contribute and excel in the new world of tomorrow. Including the poorest, deprived and economically backward people, especially by reaching the last person in the line of SC/ST can get excellence through techno-based education rather than the traditional way. It is also a fact that students from 23 states like Jammu, Kashmir, Bihar, Assam, Meghalaya, and other countries are studying at this University, the majority of which belong to SC/ST, backward class, and minority communities. Most of the girls studying are from rural environments. For effective deployment of our strategy we develop & revise our curriculum every 5 years, adding new subjects each year with the help of the academic Council, BoS, and BoE, CBCS has been adopted in almost all the curricula. Due to the pandemic [COVID-19], LMS (Learning Management System) such as Microsoft Team App, is widely used for a profound teaching experience. The fee for various courses at Mewar University is the lowest possible to prevent financial stress/burden on students and their guardians. In addition to that, the University provides many different scholarships to the weaker section, needy persons, and talented students.

6.4.4 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly

Mewar University has established a mechanism for conducting internal and external audits on financial transactions every year to ensure financial compliance. An internal audit is conducted half yearly by the internal financial committee of the institution. The committee thoroughly verifies the income and expenditure details and the compliance report of the internal audit is submitted to the management. An external audit is conducted once every year by an external agency.

All vouchers are audited by an internal financial committee on a half-yearly basis. The expenses incurred under different heads are thoroughly checked by verifying the bills and vouchers. If any discrepancy is found, the same is brought to the notice of the management.

The accounts of Mewar University are audited by Sethiya and Company chartered accountants regularly as per the government rules. Mewar University did not come across any major audit objection during the preceding years. All these mechanisms exhibit the transparency being maintained in financial matters and adherence to financial discipline to avoid defalcation of funds or properties of the institution at all levels. The audited statement is duly signed by the authorities of the management and chartered accountant.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Mewar University has a well-built ethical work culture that is based on inclusivity. The institute understands gender equality is one of the key challenges facing society today. To achieve societal goals, University makes sure that the workforce has equal participation among staff. The University has taken all the possible steps to balance gender neutrality in senior academic and executive ranks as well. Equal opportunities are ensured for all individuals irrespective of gender, race, caste, color, creed, language, religion, political or other opinions, national or social origin, property, birth, or another status. Its distinctive work culture, vigorous background, and ethos have led to the improvisation of women students and women staff on the campus. Safety, security, and well-being, along with gender equity and a pleasant working atmosphere are the issues of prime concern to Mewar University. To promote the inclusiveness message among the students and staff, Annual Gender Sensitization Action Plan is prepared at the beginning of the academic year itself. Gender issues have been sensitized on campus through various activities like debates, discussions, seminars, theatrical performances, and other forms of arts. The documentation also shows the institute has given prominent room for women to indulge in different academic and non-academic activities. Mewar takes a pledge to work towards providing a platform for those who are out of the mainstream.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Mewar University believes in RRR methodology i.e. Reduce, Reuse and Recycle to manage any degradable and non-degradable waste. The University has taken several steps to collect such wastes by placing different dustbins to segregate the different wastes like solid, biomedical, etc. There are committees formed that look into the minimization of waste regularly. In addition, different bins have been placed in different departments for solid waste management. After collecting these solid wastes from bins, the university ensures the recycling of all these pieces is done with minimum cost and labor. For biomedical waste, we have a separate dust bin to segregate plastic disposals, liquid wastes, and other things since the university has a primary health center. University takes all the precautionary mechanisms to collect such wastes by providing headgears, eye covers, and aprons. Gloves and boots to every employer who are actively indulged in the waste management system. Apart from managing the waste, the university has a focus on making awareness programs among youth on proper usage of waste. Hence, the university has organized many workshops on the implementation of a clean environment. It was stressed to avoid plastic items to the best possible capacity inside the campus.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities (within a maximum of 200 words)

Mewar University strongly believes in equality of all cultures and traditions and has always been at the forefront of sensitizing students to the regional, cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic diversities of the state and nation. The equality of diversity is evident from the fact that students belonging to various regions, religions, castes, and creeds are studying here without any discrimination. Despite having a huge amount of students from outside India, we bring them all under one umbrella of equality. University celebrates national festivals, birth anniversaries, and memorials of great personalities with great fervor by including students from across the world. Similarly, University also creates a platform to celebrate their own festivals with enthusiasm and joy which helps them to instill social and religious harmony. Annual fest days are the epitome of such gatherings where students and staff from different pledge to keep the nation's integrity no matter what.

Apart from all these activities, University organizes special events to celebrate the cultural diversity of the nation and the world. The various departments also conduct workshops, seminars, and other outreach programs to promote communal harmony and tolerance. To stabilize the linguistic diversity, the university regularly conducts various competitions such as essay writing, elocution, and folk songs in different languages.
