INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

on 08-09-2021

“Let us remember: One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world.” - Malala Yousafzai

People with no or low literacy skills, who already face multiple disadvantages in their daily lives, have also had limited access to health and preventive information about the corona virus and online learning opportunities to continue their education. The COVID-19 crisis has shed light on the unpreparedness of infrastructure, education systems, programs, and people for ensuring the continuity of teaching and learning in such a situation. So we as Mewar University NSS Unit planned to conduct Literacy awareness Program in nearby area (Vishram Kutti) of University on the occasion of International Literacy Day.

On realizing that illiteracy is one of the major problems around the world and we all should put in intensified efforts towards creating a literate society. Our 40 Volunteer focus on literacy development and overcome challenges to achieve sustainable development. They stressed how small endeavors could make a big difference and so requested each one to take initiative in reducing illiteracy in their own little way. To make this event successful, Pro V C Mr. Anand Vardhan Shukla, NSS Coordinator Dr Jyoti Singh Raghav, Mr. Shiv Kumar is present there.

Azadi's nectar festival

Jai Hind sloganeer and “You give me blood”

Like who does not know the self-respecting and full of eloquent statement, the great hero Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose. The mere remembrance of whom - the arms start twitching and the blood becomes ready to sacrifice freedom for the country. May the life of the students be inspired by this great warrior of freedom, so birth anniversary of Neta Ji Subhash Chandra Bose is celebrated with great pomp every year in Mewar University. Competitions like patriotic songs, acting; Prabhat Pheri, speech, poetry, etc. are also organized on this day. Freedom did not come easily; many sacrifices have been made for it - the British used to fear in the name of Netaji.
