

Mewar University and Université' de Poitiers (France) Joint Programmes

Université' de Poitiers (France): It is a member of the Coimbra Group, as one of the oldest universities of Europe. The main wealth of the University of Poitiers is the plurality of the subjects taught. A feature that provides students with broad career opportunities in all areas of Activities. The University covers all major academic fields through its 14 teaching and Research Departments, Institutes and Schools.

The following programmes are started w.e.f July 2014 session in collaboration with Université' de Poitiers (France):

1. Exchange of Personnel

- Undertaking joint research with a foreign colleague
- Joint curriculum, participation in courses, improvement of knowledge and competency in teaching
- Contribution to teaching programs
- Co-supervision of doctoral students
- Research trips and joint consultancy work
- Exchange of best practices in administrative and educational domains

2. Exchange of Students

- Participation in research
- International study
- Internships connected to their field of study

3. Exchange of Academic Materials

<http://www.univ-poitiers.fr/>

DO NOT COPY